Dear Roy:

Thank you for your most recent letter to the Best Buy corporate offices. I appreciate you taking the time to forward us the information that you had provided. I had contacted you by phone at the number we had for you and left a voicemail however, I hadn't received a phone call back.

As I'm sure you understand, radar detectors aren't illegal in all states that while we most certainly respect your position as well as your cause, we are able to sell these items legally on BestBuy.com to customers entrusting that they will know their local laws surrounding the use of such equipment.

I have forwarded your concerns onto our legal department and should there be any issues with the radar units that we're retailing on our site, it certainly will be addressed as necessary

If there is anything further I may be able to assist you with, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Jamie L. Friede
